

BSR Collaborations

High-impact partnerships to address global challenges

Collaboration is more important than ever before.

BSR's business-led, collaborative forums provide a safe, trusting environment for companies to learn from their peers, see a changing world more clearly, and move forward as a group to accelerate progress and achieve impact at scale.

This resource features BSR Collaborations that are currently available for all companies. Starting July 1, 2026, BSR members have the exclusive option to select one BSR Collaboration at no additional cost. While pricing may change, the options currently available to members at no additional cost will remain the same. Additional options may be added in the future.

Most BSR collaborative initiatives run on a January-December schedule; BSR roundtables offer opportunities to participate for shorter periods throughout the calendar year. To get the most out of your BSR Collaboration, we encourage you to join in January; however, most groups allow new participants to join throughout the year. Companies are welcome and encouraged to engage in more than one BSR Collaboration.
