Lessons from Successful Corporate Partnerships

Neil Giles

CEO, Traffik Analysis Hub

Neil Giles has been working with STOP THE TRAFFIK since 2008 and his knowledge of organised crime and human trafficking is extensive. He has a strong history in Law Enforcement and is a specialist in intelligence collection.

In 2019, Neil moved to lead Traffik Analysis Hub - a new stand alone cross sector initiative developed with IBM and Clifford Chance, to bring diverse data sets together for tailored analysis for every actor in every sector to identify their vulnerabilities to human trafficking.

John McGrath

Senior Managing Consultant & Solution Architect, IBM
Cloud & Cognitive Software

John McGrath is a Senior Managing Consultant & Solution Architect for IBM Cloud & Cognitive Software leading the IBM Centre of Excellence for Corporate Social Responsibility, specialising in the use of Artificial Intelligence technology for social impact.

Based in the IBM Ireland Software Lab, John was previously the Worldwide Practice Leader for IBM Security and Smarter Cities related project delivery. In that role, he delivered global security projects for national agencies including projects in the Philippines such as the Public Safety & Security Command Centre in Davao and the Disaster Operations Centre for Dept of Science & Technology of the Philippine Government in Manila. Prior to joining IBM, he was the Enterprise Program Director for Portal for TransAlta in Canada.

Lauren Aste

Executive VP & General Counsel, CWT

Lauren Aste is Executive Vice President & Chief Legal Officer & General Counsel of CWT (formerly Carlson Wagonlit Travel) where she manages CWT's global legal and compliance function. Based in London, she reports to CWT's President and CEO as part of CWT's global Executive Leadership Team. She is Executive Sponsor of CWT's Government Affairs Task Force, CWT's Anti-Human Trafficking Task Force and CWT's Responsible Purchasing Committee.

Lauren currently serves as Chair of the Board of Directors of the World Childhood Foundation, Inc. She also serves as a member of the ECPAT International Independent Experts Group and the INTERPOL Human Trafficking Experts Group.

Nicole G. Epps

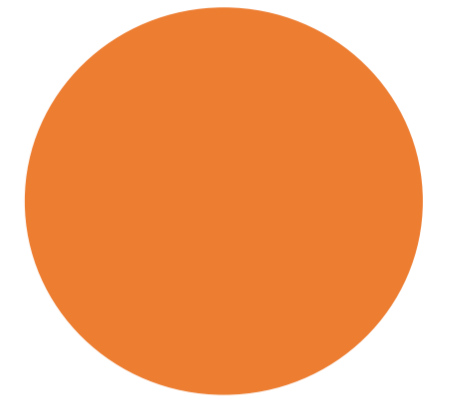

Executive Director, World Childhood Foundation USA

Nicole G. Epps is Executive Director of World Childhood Foundation USA. She also serves as Vice President of the National Coalition to Prevent Child Sexual Abuse and Exploitation. She has been appointed to the State of New Jersey's Task Force on Child Abuse and Neglect and chairs the Outreach and Engagement Committee.

Nicole is the former Associate Director of Court Appointed Special Advocates of Morris and Sussex Counties, where she implemented and managed community outreach and the Fostering Futures program that provided life skills, HIV and STDI screenings for teens in foster care that will age out of the child welfare system. Prior to CASA, Epps led the U.S. office of anti-trafficking organization Apne Aap and worked at New York-based victim services organization Safe Horizon.
